Dear Mr. Carlton:

We are in receipt of your letter dated June 3, 2014.

We dispute your (company's) claim in its entirety, for reasons already documented in our correspondence to Mr. Lee.

In essence, even to this very day, not only has your company confessed having no commercial nexus regarding either of us but also there's still no evidence of any agreement, much less one that obligates either of us to any line of conduct or avoidance of conduct on which you're asserting your (company's) claim.

You, like Mr. Lee, presume facts into existence that are not facts and that are not agreed to. Your legal conclusions are, therefore, quite errant. We again assert all our rights, including the right not to contract.

Sincerely,

/s/ Walter Olenick
